Public Affairs Director

Issues of Concern to Meniffee/Sun City/Temecula Addressed in Responsive Programming in the 3rd Quarter, 2016

Subject	Description of Issue of Concern
1. Pet care and rescue	Helping you find a forever home for a furry friend and keeping your pet safe and healthy
2. Law enforcement	Another successful National Night Out and help in identifying counterfeit merchandise and how it's linked to terrorism.
3. Safety and recovery	It was a challenging August for the residents of the high desert. Homes and property destroyed. We spoke with the organizations coordinating the assistance.
4. Recreation	A local community received a substantial grant. We learned about the plan on how that money will be augmenting a local park project. And we get an update on a bicycle donation project.
5. Youth and adult advocacy	From reuniting children with their fathers to elderly abuse we covered issues concerning children and adults safety.
6. Hunger & Homelessness	In our effort to keep the conversation regarding hunger in the forefront we covered a couple organizations relieving the need. And we discovered some new groups serving the homeless.
7. Health issues	We revisited some health issues that have long been at the forefront and some others we just learned about.
8. Military	We continue to honor, support and encourage our troops with various segments on the military
9. Employment	Women's empowerment and job fairs address the employment crisis that still exists in the region.
10. Community Service & Misc.	There's an abundance of people and organization doing good things for the community. We highlight them almost weekly.

The Victor Valley Animal Protective League's mission is to provide and maintain a safe, clean, humane environment for the unwanted animals in the Victor Valley communities. They strive to make sure the animal's stay is comfortable, humane and respectful. No abuse will be tolerated. VVAPL is not funded or controlled by any government or national animal welfare organization. The animal shelter, services, and programs are made available through fundraising, donations, foundation and corporate support, and service fees. The goal is to place 150 animals a month in forever homes. Also, the Victor Valley APL provides shelter to homeless animals relinquished by their guardians, animals that are rescued from abuse or neglect, and stray or abandoned dogs/cats.

Each year hundreds of thousands of older persons are abused, neglected, and exploited. Many victims are people who are older, frail, and vulnerable and cannot help themselves and depend on others to meet their most basic needs. Abusers of older adults are both women and men, and may be family members, friends, or "trusted others." In general, elder abuse is a term referring to any knowing, intentional, or negligent act by a caregiver or any other person that causes harm or a serious risk of harm to a vulnerable adult. The Department of Aging and Adult Services has an Elder and Dependent Adult Abuse Awareness campaign which offers a place to turn for those being abused. There is also help for the caretakers who are dealing with the stress and challenges of caring for a loved one.

Ovation School for the Performing Arts was founded in 2004 to provide a quality performing arts education that is accessible to children and teens of all demographics. Ovation has become a safe haven for many youth in the community attracting students of all levels of ability, from the professional child actor to the extremely shy teenager that just wants to try something new. The students are free to explore their creativity without fear of judgment or rejection. As a result, the students who go through the program have discovered more than a gift in the arts; they have discovered security and confidence in themselves as individuals. The goal for Ovation has always been to teach more than mere classes in the Arts. They develop confidence by teaching life skills such as self-discipline, teamwork and most importantly the concept of "paying it forward" by giving back to their community whether it's singing to seniors at a convalescent home or handing out toys to children at Christmas. In doing this, they change the world one student at a time.

We hear about the importance of Mom a lot. But Dad? Not so much. An upcoming conference aims to put the focus on Dad. A special Fatherhood Conference, hosted by Children's Network, is set for Saturday at San Bernardino Valley College. The free event celebrates fatherhood, aiming to inspire, educate, and equip fathers and father figures to be actively involved in their children's lives. Organizers are providing fathers with information and resources to empower dads to overcome the pervasive social trend in widespread father absence. Learn more and get details on the conference in this segment of Eye on the Community.

In family law and public policy, child support is an ongoing, periodic payment made by a parent for the financial benefit of a child following the end of a marriage or other relationship. Child Support Services locates absent parents, establishes paternity, and establishes court orders that determine child support and medical payments. Services are available for anyone raising a child in their home. Child Support Services represents the child and makes sure they are supported by both parents. If a parent's circumstances change, such as either parent loses a job or is earning more money, or visitation a new court order is needed to make a change. Child Support Services can assist you with this process.

Teen Challenge is the oldest, largest and most successful program of its kind in the world, and was founded over 50 years ago by Reverend David Wilkerson. Since Wilkerson opened the first center in New York in 1960, Teen Challenge has grown to over 200 centers across the nation and over 1400 centers worldwide. In 1971, Wilkerson founded a global evangelistic ministry, World Challenge. David Wilkerson died in 2011 at the age of 79. Teen Challenge, a ministry that he founded, continues to touch hurting people worldwide, bringing recovery to those trapped in addiction. We talked with the Executive Director of Teen Challenge of Southern California to get the story of the local chapter.

In 2013 a loved one was diagnosed with a cancer and that's all it took for a couple cousins in Rancho Cucamonga to spring into action. Now a few years later they are making dreams come true. It was a simple idea, to put a smile on a child's face by making one of their dreams come true. For an hour or two or a day maybe fulfilling this dream would their mind off of what they were going through. As it turned out there were a lot of people who felt like this was a good idea too. It is blossoming into a movement.

Hyperemesis gravidarum (HG) is a complication of pregnancy that is characterized by severe nausea and vomiting such that weight loss and dehydration occur. Signs and symptoms may include vomiting several times a day and feeling faint. It is more severe than morning sickness. Often symptoms get better after the 20th week of pregnancy but may last the entire pregnancy. We talked to Perry Pack, founder of the Ayden Rae Foundation, which was founded to raise awareness about this condition. We learned about the symptoms, diagnosis and treatment of the disease and a photo contest the foundation was promoting to raise awareness and funds for research.

LifeStream is a private, comprehensive blood center serving more than 80 medical facilities in Southern California. Based on the need for a readily available blood supply, LifeStream was established by the medical societies of San Bernardino and Riverside counties and has been helping to save lives by connecting donors and patients through the gift of blood since June 19, 1951. Healthy volunteer blood donors are needed for surgery and trauma patients, transplant recipients, premature infants and cancer patients. To meet emergency and ongoing patient need, LifeStream must receive at least 500 donations daily in order to support 175,000 transfusions annually. Multiple blood drives are held daily. In addition, LifeStream operates five donor centers located in San Bernardino, Riverside, Ontario, Victorville and La Quinta. Blood components are stored and distributed from LifeStream facilities in San Bernardino, Placentia, Victorville and La Quinta.

Alzheimer's disease (AD), also known as just Alzheimer's, is a chronic neurodegenerative disease that usually starts slowly and gets worse over time. It is the cause of 60% to 70% of cases of dementia. The most common early symptom is difficulty in remembering recent events (short-term memory loss). As the disease advances, symptoms can include problems with language, disorientation (including easily getting lost), mood swings, loss of motivation, not managing self-care, and behavior issues. No treatments stop or reverse its progression, though some may temporarily improve symptoms. Affected people increasingly rely on others for assistance, often placing a burden on the caregiver.

Apraxia of speech (AOS) is an acquired oral motor speech disorder affecting an individual's ability to translate conscious speech plans into motor plans, which results in limited and difficult speech ability. By the definition of apraxia, AOS affects volitional (willful or purposeful) movement patterns, however AOS usually also affects automatic speech. Individuals with AOS have difficulty connecting speech messages from the brain to the mouth. Developmental verbal dyspraxia (DVD), also known as childhood apraxia of speech (CAS) and developmental apraxia of speech (DAS) is an inability to utilize motor planning to perform movements necessary for speech during a child's language learning process. Although the causes differ between AOS and DVD, the main characteristics and treatments are similar.

Everybody likes a bargain. A designer bag at a fraction of the cost, consumer electronics without the hefty price tag. But there is a serious downside. When counterfeit items are medications, or if the detergent we use to wash our families clothes are forgeries we could be putting them in danger. There's also the damage that counterfeit items do to our economy. And what if your new computer malfunctions, do you think it will have a warranty that anyone will stand behind? And the most sinister aspect of all? The terrorists are using this as an untraceable way to raise cash to fund their operations to harm us.

The wet winter weather has brought more positive tests for West Nile Virus this year. Mosquitoes collected in the Rancho Cucamonga area have tested positive for west Nile virus. This adds to the positive tests already collected in Chino, Chino Hills, Ontario and previously in Rancho Cucamonga. It is not unusual for mosquitoes to test positive for West Nile virus, especially during the summer months. The West Valley Mosquito and Vector Control District staff has intensified mosquito surveillance, as well as efforts to control adult and larval mosquitoes in these areas to reduce the mosquito populations and interrupt the disease transmission cycle. In this segment of Eye on the Community you learn how to 'fight the bite' and what you can do to reduce the mosquito population around your home.

CID or Center for Individual Development is a regional recreation center that focuses on providing recreation programs for people with disabilities. Opened in October of 1980, it is a 15,000 square foot one story building. The original name of the CID was "Center for Individuals with Disabilities." In 1996, the CID Advisory Council recommended that the name be changed, it was felt that the acronym "CID" had become well known in the community, so a name was chosen that kept the acronym. CID serves people with the following disabilities. Recently they were vandalized, their building damaged and the props and tools for their Halloween haunted house stolen. We decided to check back with them to see how things were going. The Bicycles for Children not-for-profit, Corona based organization was founded in July 2012 with the goal of donating 155 bicycles to impoverished children in the Corona/Norco Unified School District. Each elementary school in the district was asked to select five needy, but deserving children from their school. Through fundraising, being involved with community events, and private and business donations, they were able to exceed their goal, and purchased, assembled, and donated 196 bicycles and helmets.

San Bernardino County was among 50 communities in California to receive grant funding from the California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD). The unincorporated area of Bloomington, which is located in the County's 5th Supervisorial District, was awarded $713,975. The grant can be used toward the creation or renovation of parks and recreational facilities within the area. The Housing-Related Parks (HRP) Program is designed to provide financial incentives to cities and counties that have developed new affordable housing units. A part of the eligibility for the HRP Program grant includes having a compliant housing element. Earlier this year, Bloomington celebrated the grand opening of Lillian Court senior housing, Bloomington Grove family housing and the Bloomington Branch Library.
